WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

FROM YOUR NEBC PRAYER PARTNERS

It was the biggest meeting of Paul's life, and it had gone well. He couldn't wait to tell his wife and his boss. As he and his team rushed out of the office building, eager to catch their flight home, they bolted toward a cab. But as they made their way across the sidewalk, they inadvertently knocked over a small produce stand. The rest of the team seemed oblivious until Paul stopped and turned around to go back. The others called out to Paul, "Come on, you'll miss your flight." "Go ahead without me," Paul replied as he made his way toward the sidewalk covered in produce. At that moment, he realized that the woman who had been behind the produce stand was blind. She was just standing there crying softly with tears running down her face.

"It's OK, it's OK," Paul said to her as he got down on his hands and knees and began picking up the fruit and vegetables. There were hundreds of people passing, but nobody else stopped to help. Paul turned to the woman and asked, "Are you OK?" She nodded through her tears. Then he gave her some money saying, "This money should cover the damages."

With that, Paul turned and began to walk away. "Mister," the woman called after him. Paul paused and turned around. "Are you Jesus?" "Oh, no," he replied. The woman nodded and continued, "I only ask because I prayed for Jesus to help me as I heard my fruit falling all over the sidewalk." Paul turned to leave again, only now his eyes began to fill with tears. He had missed his flight, so he spent the night in a hotel by the airport. He couldn't get one question out of his head: When was the last time someone confused you for Jesus?

There are several questions that we all must ask ourselves as we journey thru life: Who am I? Who is God? What am I here for? What matters most? What matters least? What are my unique talents and abilities? What will my contribution be? What happens when we die? We will constantly grapple with these questions - - - but I'm so glad that - - - Jesus is our amazing friend who is going to help us answer them. And most importantly, Jesus is our amazing friend who is going to help us live out the answers! Jesus is - - - our amazing "Savior" - - - who is going to be at our side through this journey called life.
