WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

FROM YOUR NEBC PRAYER PARTNERS

One day the famous artist Michelangelo was standing in front of a huge, unsightly piece of rock. With his hammer and chisel, he was in the beginning stages of sculpting it into a piece of art. He knew it was going to be a long, drawn-out process.

Someone came along and said, "What are you doing wasting your time working on that ugly piece of rock?" Michelangelo said, "I see a beautiful angel trapped in this rock, and I'm doing my best to let him out."

The master artist saw something that other people couldn't see. And that's exactly the way God sees us. You may have made a lot of mistakes with your life. Perhaps you've failed God a thousand times. Now, you feel that you don't deserve anything good. You may feel that you are nothing more than a useless lump of rock.

But when God looks at you, He doesn't see the rock. He sees the priceless gem trapped inside. God sees a valuable son or daughter whom He created in His own image. He's not done working on you yet. He's chipping away, knocking off the rough, unsightly edges, molding you, shaping you, until God gets His masterpiece out of the rock.

Quit beating yourself up, thinking you've made too many mistakes. Our God is a God of second chances - - - and third, and fourth, and even more chances. God loves you. He approves of you, and God's approval is something He put in you before the foundation of the world. It is not based on your achievements or performance. It is based solely on the fact that you are His child, and He sees the best in you.

But you must do your part. Quit overanalyzing your faults; stop taking an inventory of everything wrong with you. If you make mistakes, ask for forgiveness and then move on. Don't wallow in guilt and condemnation. Your job is to keep pressing forward and doing your best. Stay focused on what you can become in Jesus Christ, and God will get you to where you need to be.
