WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

FROM YOUR NEBC PRAYER PARTNERS

Most all of us experience challenges in life that don't make sense and leaves us with many unanswered questions. When we isolate these challenges and focus only on the negative situations we've encountered, life can seem unfair and cruel, and can make us bitter. I know people right now who are mad at God. They have no joy, no enthusiasm, no direction, and it's all because they went through a disappointment (that they did not understand).

Instead of believing God was still in control and waiting for a new beginning, they isolated that incident. Their focus was, "Why did God let this happen to me?" We need to trust in God's plan and have the attitude: "I know God has a great plan for my life. I know He is directing my steps. Even though I may not understand this, I know it's not a surprise to God. And somehow, somehow, He will work it out to my advantage." If you will keep pressing forward, one day you will look back and see how each setback played into God's master plan for your life.

Here's the key: When you go through a disappointment, or a loss, don't stop on that page. Keep moving forward. There's another chapter of your life in front of you. Sometimes we miss an open door of opportunity because we are so focused on what didn't work out. Let go of it and move on to the next chapter God has written.

Scripture says all our days have been written in God's book. God knows every disappointment, every loss, and every challenge. The good news is that because you are a child of the King, your story ends in victory. Your final chapter concludes with you fulfilling your God-given destiny.

Learn to shake off bitterness. Do not dwell on unanswered questions. Believe that God is in complete control. He will show up and show out in unusual ways. God will transform your scars into stars. He will make your mess into your message. Your tests will become your testimony (to the faithfulness of our mighty God)!
