WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

FROM YOUR NEBC PRAYER PARTNERS

“This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us” (1 John 5:14)

During this time of prayer and fasting, one of the best things that we can do in our relationship with Jesus is to take an inventory of how we are growing in the Lord, and also examine areas in our life that can be improved. For a lot of us, one of those areas would be our prayer life.

We pray for our nation, our communities, our churches, family, and friends. But when it comes to praying for ourselves, many find this very challenging. It's not very difficult to pray to land that great job, find that perfect spouse, or when we are experiencing illness, most all of us will be found lowering our head and asking for God's help.

But what God wants us to strive for most when praying for ourselves is to look deep inside and see where we need Him to help us change. It is taking a hard look at yourself and wanting to know how you can keep growing and developing as His child. It is closing your eyes in prayer and asking God for patience to deal with a difficult family member; it is dropping to your knees in prayer to ask for the ability to forgive someone when you find it impossible to do. It is taking the time to admit to God that you are struggling with something (and we are all struggling with something) and praying for His grace to fill our hearts and soothe our souls.

When we take our deepest concerns to the Lord, not only does He hear everything that we say but He also knows our hearts, and listens as the Holy Spirit cries out on our behalf for His guidance and love.

I pray that you not only seek Him, but you let this time of prayer and fasting draw you closer to God and His heart. Let us first seek to know Him deeply, and in knowing Him, our lives will naturally bend in the direction of His will.
