WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

FROM YOUR NEBC PRAYER PARTNERS

“My house will be called a house of prayer.” (Isaiah 56:7)

The more children grow, the more unpredictable their lives become. More opportunities for the wrong people to whisper backward thinking in their ears. More ways for their decisions to turn around and bite them. No matter how smart or savvy we may be, our children are still subject to circumstances and surprises beyond our reach. You cannot always protect them or control the flow around their lives.

But God’s love has a stellar battle strategy and backup plan. It’s called “PRAYER”.

God understands and loves our children more than we do. He can see our kids when we do not. He can go with them, watch over them, and guide them where we cannot. And He invites you to place them and your every other concern into His loving arms. His Word tells us:

- “Ask, and it will be given to you . . . ” (Matthew 7:7)
- “If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give what is good to those who ask Him!” (Matt. 7:11).

What a glorious, gracious God He is! There is nothing more powerful you can do to greatly impact your children for good than to get on your knees and sincerely pray for them. From our lips to His ears, we should often pray “for” them, “with” them, and “around” them.

In prayer, our intercession allows us to stand in the gap against evil and temptation and ask God to save and strengthen our children. In prayer, we can join God in waging war against the spiritual forces that would “steal and kill and destroy” their dreams and futures (see John 10:10).

So train your children to be wise and careful, but trust your children (young and old) to the One who ultimately holds their success and safety in His omnipotent hands. If you desire great things, then ask for great things. But don’t let things lack and/or fail simply because you do not pray. Launch the ball into God’s court and see how He responds!
