WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

FROM YOUR NEBC PRAYER PARTNERS

On more than one occasion, Jesus told His disciples (you and me) there is a peace that is available to them at all times - - one that is capable of calming their hearts in any storm in life.

"Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid" (John 14:27).

Jesus spoke these words to His disciples when He knew that in a matter of hours their lives would be shattered through His own terrible ordeal and death. The peace Jesus gives us is not a promise to remove the pain and stress of daily living. Those troubles are inevitable, and they will not be removed from us until the Lord comes again.

In Philippians 4:7 we have a wonderful promise: "The peace of God, which passes all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." It is important to note the context and a condition of this promise: "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God" (verse 6). God's peace is promised to guard those who pray—with thanksgiving—about everything. This peace will transcend our ability to understand it.

The peace that comes from being in a right relationship with God is not the peace of this world. The world's peace depends on having favorable circumstances: if things are going well, then we feel peaceful; when things go awry, the peace quickly dissipates.

But the believer who places his or her full confidence in a loving God and is thankful in every circumstance will possess a supernatural peace. An inner calm will dominate the heart. The faithful believer will know peace—his heart and mind are "guarded" by it—despite the tempest raging without. We must always trust in God for:

"I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world" (John 16:33).
