WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

FROM YOUR NEBC PRAYER PARTNERS

Let's be honest now. The "end times" is not exactly a cheery topic. We kind of sidestep it, don't we? The Bible describes a time of great adversity, a time of terrible grief and disorder. Although it's not a pretty picture, it will not go away if you act as though it doesn't exist. We see the news, the messiness of the world, and a quiet voice inside whispers, God, please keep us safe.

When everything around us seems to be falling apart, it's very easy to forget what God has promised. But holding onto His Word like a lifeline, thinking about how faithful He's been, and remembering His amazing love—that's the key. We must learn to trust in God completely.

Our God is deeply caring, and His promises are our sure foundation. He says in Isaiah 41:10 (KJV): "Fear not, for I am with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yes, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness."

Maybe the best way to get ready for whatever's coming in the end times isn't to run around grabbing stuff or puzzling over prophecies. Rather, it's living completely for God, touching other people's lives, and sharing the good news.

We don't know when it will happen, but we do know our lives should show Jesus' love and kindness. A life spent helping others, showing compassion, and spreading hope—that's a life well spent, no matter what tomorrow brings.

Now, about those "end times", those whispers of what's to come. Don't let them fill you with dread. Rather, anticipate Christ's return, the glorious return of our Savior! Our goal shouldn't be about surviving but about being found faithful. It's not what happens, but who we are when it does.

Let's be the light, the salt, showing the world the way—the transforming love of God. Let's not be driven by fear but by something deeper, stronger—our faith.
