WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

FROM YOUR NEBC PRAYER PARTNERS

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding.” (Proverbs 3:5)

Nobody knows what the future holds. And for many of us, that's an unsettling reality. We can set all the goals, make all the plans, and exercise all the wisdom within our means, but we just don't know what's going to happen next. Markets can crash, wars can pop up, and health can fail - - just to name a few possibilities. Like it or not, life in this world has a way of surprising us.

The future may be a question mark, but there's one aspect of our destiny that isn't. For those of us who trust Jesus Christ as Savior, we know that the final outcome of our lives will be eternal peace, joy, and rest in Him. Whatever happens between now and the moment we enter the gates of heaven, only God knows. But the sureness of our home with Jesus is the single outcome we can count on - - unequivocally, undeniably.

For those who don't know the Lord, their outcome is just as certain but infinitely less pleasant. Yet too many of us are so focused on our own lives in this uncertain world that we haven't bothered to think about where our non-believing friends, neighbors, and loved ones will spend eternity. The Bible tells us that one day "the earth and its works will be burned up" (2 Peter 3:10). In other words, your home, job, bank account, and temporal pursuits will vanish. Only one thing from this world as we know it will last - - human beings! And we will dwell in one of two places: heaven or hell.

For us as believers in Christ, the greatest investment we can make today is in the eternal destiny of family, friends, neighbors, and strangers alike. Why not make an eternal difference by sharing the gospel with someone who needs our Savior? In fact this is more than just an investment; it's our God-given responsibility!

Let's be faithful and obedient in doing what the Lord commanded: Go, and make disciples!
