Words of Encouragement

“but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head” (Matt. 8:20)

Do you enjoy being comfortable? Yeah, me too! We all know people that even the slightest discomfort makes them irritable, restless, and discontent. They become one of those people who burst into an angry rage over the tiniest thing. Many people today make comfort their life priority which can lead to a “comfort addiction”.

Most people are looking for the path, which is easier, and offers the least resistance in life? But is a path of comfort good for us? Is the comfortable path the way of the Believer?

There are many things that may seem unclear when we read the Gospels, but the general criteria for following Jesus is abundantly clear. In Matthew’s Gospel we read, “If anyone wishes to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross, and follow me” (16:24).

Deny yourself. Jesus was clear. He didn’t promise or even allude to an easy path. Jesus did not promise comfort. He promised quite the opposite. He set denial of self as a primary condition of discipleship, and He promised that each of us would have a cross of our own to carry.

“God has a plan for our lives, and surrendering to Him means we set aside our own plans and eagerly seek his.”

Why doesn’t Jesus want us to get comfortable? The reason is simple, profound, and practical: He doesn’t want us to forget that we are just passing through this world. This is not our home! When we get comfortable we start to behave as if we are going to live on this earth forever. Perhaps if our lives have become “comfortable” that alone is a sign that we are wandering away from the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The ability to delay gratification, to deny yourself, is an essential life skill of the follower of Jesus. Every believer is called to give up any idol that stands in the way of following Christ wholeheartedly. Each of us knows what that thing is and how difficult it is to say goodbye to it. But, in the end, the heart that loves Christ will dispose of that competing love, despite the very real pain and anguish of doing so.
