Words of Encouragement

August 24, 2025

“Whoever believes in me, as Scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them.” (John 7:38)

The “rivers of living water” Jesus was referring to is the Spirit of God working in and flowing out of the life of a believer. Up until this time, the Holy Spirit would come upon a believer and then depart. When Jesus makes this statement, He is shifting the paradigm, letting us know the Holy Spirit would no longer just come upon a believer but would dwell within the believer. The word rivers here imply something greater than a calm, quiet river, or little stream. This word means a flood or an overabundance. Think of any time you have seen torrential rain and the water flows into the river creating a powerful stream of water that flows over everything in its path. This is how the Holy Spirit should be present and operating in your life. This is not reserved for the anointed few but is intended for the believing many. This promise is for every believer. God desires and expects that the Holy Spirit will be abundant and overflowing in your life, not just a mere presence.

“God has a plan for our lives, and surrendering to Him means we set aside our own plans and eagerly seek his.”

The more you open your heart to the work of the Holy Spirit, the more He will flow through you. This does not require you to do more or be more, it requires you to surrender more. The more surrendered you are to the Holy Spirit and the more you allow Him to work in your life, the greater your capacity to do absolutely amazing things for the Kingdom of God.

Does the presence of the Holy Spirit in your life right now feel like a trickle, a stream, or an abundant overflow?

Remember, when you are committed and plugged into the Holy Spirit (and surrender to His flow), you will experience God’s powerful influence in your life.

Jesus promised if you believed . . . rivers of living water would flow. . . so now it is time to turn the faucet on and allow the Holy Spirit to flow through your life the way God desires!

Jesus Christ

OUR HOPE OUR ANCHOR

The central theme of Hebrews is that Jesus is the ultimate revelation of God. When it was written, Christians were in danger of abandoning their faith during a time of tension and trouble. Today, we still need encouragement... We will explore

- THE SUPERIORITY OF CHRIST
- THE NEW COVENANT IN CHRIST
- THE CALL TO FAITHFULNESS
