Words of Encouragement

September 14, 2025

One day, Jesus was walking with His disciples in the district of Caesarea Philippi when He asked them two questions. The first question was: "Who do people say that I am?" The disciples replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets" (Matt. 16:13-20).

The second question Jesus asked was: "But who do you say that I am?"

This is the "Jesus question" that we need to answer today. Who do "you" say that Jesus is? Not who do your parents or teachers, spouse, pastor, or friends say that Jesus is, but who do "you" say He is? Sooner or later, we each have to proclaim for ourselves who we think Jesus is. There are some people who quote somebody else's answer to the question, but someone else's answer is profoundly insufficient. We each need our own answer to the Jesus question. It is a deeply personal question that requires a deeply personal answer.

The more we close the gap between the person we are today, and the person God created us to be, the more we will discover who Jesus is. The

"God has a plan for our lives, and surrendering to Him means we set aside our own plans and eagerly seek his."

more we close the gap between the life we are living today, and the life Jesus invites us to live through the Gospels, the more we will experience who Jesus is! Knowing "about" Jesus is not the same as "knowing" Jesus! Look around you. The world is constantly grappling with crisis and war. People are weary from the dysfunction of their own lives. The chaos is crying out for order. At every level in society, from the beggar on the street to the leaders of nations, we are all looking for "something" to solve the crisis of our lives and of our times.

It's time to stop looking for something and start looking to "someone" - - Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. For more than 2000 years He has been performing miracles in the lives of ordinary men and women. Now He wants to perform miracles in you and through you.
