Words of Encouragement

October 19, 2025

No one will argue that our American culture is in chaos. Immoral and perverse behaviors are excused, justified, and even celebrated. TikTok influencers often hold more sway over public opinion than do legitimate experts.

Sadly, this is nothing new. We are not—as some believe—living in the “worst, darkest, most evil age that has ever been experienced”. Cultural chaos has been a factor for every believer since the beginning of time. “What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again; there is nothing new under the sun.” (Ecclesiastes 1:9). Yet throughout time Christ-followers have remained “steadfast, immovable” to God’s commands and His Kingdom culture (1 Corinthians 15:58). Similarly, believers today have a responsibility to follow suit, to remain rooted and unwavering in our relationship to Jesus Christ and keep in step with God’s Word, no matter the prevailing cultural environment. We are told in Malachi 3:6 : “For I the Lord do not change”.

God is immutable. He is incapable of changing. His character, promises, and purposes are constant. He was, and is, and evermore will be forever Himself.

“God has a plan for our lives, and surrendering to Him means we set aside our own plans and eagerly seek his.”

What does that mean for His redeemed children? When we are anxious, confused, or fearful about our culture and the unholy direction in which it’s heading (and already is), we can rest secure in God’s unchanging character and truths.

God is an anchor and rock in the midst of the turbulent times in which we live. Know that our God will provide order when no one or nothing else can.

Thank God that : “When the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all the truth” (John 16:13).

His power supersedes that of our culture. He imparts wisdom so that we can discern truth from fiction. God will not allow us to take a cultural misstep if we “daily seek” to live in His power and protection.

When we follow Christ closely, walk in step with the Holy Spirit, and keep our hearts and minds set wholly on pleasing our heavenly Father, we will reflect Jesus Christ—His character, His teachings, His way of life.
