FROM YOUR NEBC PRAYER PARTNERS

Words of Encouragement

December 28, 2025

O God, You are my God, early will I seek You, my soul thirsts for You, my flesh longs for You in a dry and thirsty land where there is no water. So, I have looked for You in the sanctuary, to see Your power and Your glory. Because Your lovingkindness is better than life,
my lips shall praise You. (Psalm 63:1-3)

This prayer is all about longing. The psalmist rises early in the morning, and he is thirsty, but he is not thirsty for water. He is thirsty for God!

This is the heart of a true believer. This is the panting heart, the thirsty heart, the hungry heart that can be satisfied only by the presence and the power of God. What did he want to see? He wanted to see God's power manifested in his life, God's glory revealed in worship. He wanted to experience God's lovingkindness - - God's mercy and grace - - This was the priority in David's life.

Question: What do you long for in life? What do you yearn for in the blank stretches of the night and when you first rise in the morning? Is it someone to love, or some measure of success? Right now, if

*"God has a plan for our lives, and surrendering to Him means we set aside
our own plans and eagerly seek his."*

you were to write down the three things you most desire, would knowing and experiencing God be at the top of the list? For the past several years our church has committed to an annual fast in January. With each passing year more and more of our church family is beginning to see that fasting is not just for a select few - - but that God is a rewarder of "all" who diligently seek Him!

Fasting is taking your focus off the things of this world in order to focus more on the things of God. The key to a successful fast is to present your body to God (as a living and willing sacrifice) - - - but not just your physical body. You must allow your mind to be renewed by the transforming power of God's biblical truth. God delights in those who seek to understand and know Him!
