Words of Encouragement

March 15, 2026

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us.” (Hebrews 12:1)

What kind of race do we (believers) run? Who sets the race parameters? Is it a race we define and purpose for ourselves? The Hebrews 12 passage tells us that the race is “set before us”; we did not select the course, for it is God who established it. The “race,” then, is the Christian life. It’s a marathon, not a sprint, and the race set before us requires faith, stamina, commitment, and discipline in order to live faithfully.

In order to “run” effectively in the race of life, we must “fix our eyes on Jesus.” He is more than our example; Jesus is “the way” into God’s presence. We must run toward Him with all our might, in the promise that we will be conformed to His image.

Simply put, to run “the race set before us” means to persevere to the end. It means to finish the race. You don’t have to finish

“God has a plan for our lives, and surrendering to Him means we set aside our own plans and eagerly seek his.”

first. It doesn’t matter if you finish last. What matters is that you finish! The race we are running is probably more like a military-style obstacle course than a nice and neat Olympic race. There are real dangers along the way, but we must keep moving forward. We have the examples of past saints to follow, but our supreme example is Jesus Himself, the one who blazed the way, finished the race, paid for our sins, and is now seated in the place of highest honor and authority. We look to Him, not only as our example but as our source of strength. Seeing that the race God set out for us is a lifelong marathon, we will only persevere by keeping our eyes on Jesus. We must not give up before finishing our race! Our focus must be like the Apostle Paul: “I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith” (2 Timothy 4:7).
