Words of Encouragement

June 14, 2026

But they all cried out together, "Away with this man, and release to us Barabbas." (Luke 23:18)

Barabbas is mentioned in all four gospels of the New Testament. The choice Pilate set before the crowd could not have been more clear-cut: a high-profile killer and rabble-rouser who was unquestionably guilty, or a teacher and miracle-worker who was demonstrably innocent. The crowd chose Barabbas to be released. The crowd thought they were choosing between two men that day. What they did not realize was that God was revealing His plan to save the world. The guilty would go free because the innocent would take their place. Barabbas is not just a man in the story. Barabbas is us.

The beauty of the cross is that Jesus never waited for Barabbas to become worthy. He never demanded that Barabbas clean himself up. He never required him to prove anything. Jesus simply stepped into his place. . . . and that is exactly what happened for you and me.

Jesus took our condemnation so we could receive His righteousness. Jesus took our shame so we could receive His acceptance. Jesus took our guilt so we could receive His peace. Jesus took our death so we could receive His life.

"God has a plan for our lives, and surrendering to Him means we set aside our own plans and eagerly seek his."

The entire story of the cross is built on God's divine exchange. The innocent One willingly stood where the guilty belonged, so the guilty could stand where the innocent One belongs.

The entire story of the cross is built on God's divine exchange. The innocent One willingly stood where the guilty belonged, so the guilty could stand where the innocent One belongs.

Because of Jesus, you are not fighting for acceptance. You already have it. Because of Jesus, you are not trying to earn God's love. You already have it. Because of Jesus, you are not standing before God based on your record. You are standing before Him based on the perfect record of Christ.

And if Jesus was willing to take your place at the cross, you can rest assured knowing He is not changing His mind about you now. You are loved, forgiven, accepted, and secure. Not because you are the hero of the story, but because Jesus is, and He finished God's work completely.

"For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son. . ."
