FROM YOUR NEBC PRAYER PARTNERS

Words of Encouragement

July 5, 2026

Many of us personally know the heartache and heartbreak of a wandering child, sometimes referred to as a prodigal. Few pains cut as deeply as watching your child walk away from the plans that God has for their life.

Even though you may feel powerless, and may not know what to do next, Jesus knows exactly where your child is today. He knows what they are thinking, and what they say are searching for. Jesus knows the wounds they carry, and the emptiness they are trying to fill. And He knows how to reach them in ways nobody else can.

Luke 19:10 says, “For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.”

If your child is lost, and has taken wrong turns in their life, they are exactly the kind of person Jesus specializes in saving. Long before your child ever made a mistake, God had already made provision for their redemption.

The beautiful thing about God’s grace is that it can reach places we cannot. There may be conversations you cannot have. There may be doors that are closed to you. There may be situations completely outside your control. But there is no place where the grace of God cannot go. No city is too far. No addiction is too strong. No deception is too deep. No darkness is too great for the light of Christ.

“God has a plan for our lives, and surrendering to Him means we set aside our own plans and eagerly seek his.”

Perhaps the hardest part is waiting. You pray and nothing seems to change. You believe and still do not see results. You wonder if God hears you. Know that every prayer offered in faith is heard by our Father. Every tear matters to Him. Every cry from your heart rises before His throne. God’s timing is often different from ours, but His faithfulness never fails.

So do not give up hope. Do not surrender to fear. Do not let today’s circumstances convince you that tomorrow cannot be different. Your hope is not in your ability to save your child. Your hope is in the Savior who leaves the ninety-nine to pursue the one.

Keep praying. Keep trusting. Your child’s story is not over because Jesus is still writing it.
