Words of Encouragement

September 27, 2026

There are seasons when life can make you wonder if the best has already happened. Maybe you look back at old memories, old opportunities, old relationships, or an earlier version of yourself and think, "Was that as good as it gets?"

Know that Jesus does not ask us to live facing backward. Because we are in Him, our life is still moving forward with purpose, grace, and hope.

As a "believer" your future is not being built on luck. It is not hanging on whether everything works out exactly the way you planned. Your future is anchored in Christ. God wants to do so much more for us, in us, and through us if we let Him have His way. The same Jesus who carried you through that which is behind you, is more than sufficient for everything ahead of you. You are not disqualified because time has passed. You are not too old, too late, too far behind, or too marked by what happened before. Grace does not look at your timeline and panic. Jesus already knew every chapter when He chose you, and none of your history reduced His ability to lead you forward.

“God has a plan for our lives, and surrendering to Him means we set aside our own plans and eagerly seek his.”

Sometimes we think our best days must mean “more stuff”. But some of the most beautiful days of your life may not include worldly stuff. Your “best days” may be the days when you understand grace more deeply, love people more freely, walk with greater peace, and become more aware of how completely accepted you are in Jesus. And even if some things do not unfold the way you imagined, you do not have to spend today mourning what yesterday was. You can be grateful for what has been, and still trust Jesus with your tomorrow. So lift your head. Your best days are ahead of you! Every day ahead is another day to know Jesus more deeply, live more freely, love more fully, and experience the life He already purchased for you. Yes, there is so much good ahead for you. Scripture declares that the human mind cannot fully grasp the marvelous blessings God has in store for His children!
